

Getting ready beforehand will help your business having an easier changeover to this process and help us manage your customs declarations more efficiently.

Please find below a brief summary of information needed from your side starting from January 1st 2021:

Letter of empowerment authorizing FERCAM being your direct representative for your customs declarations	<input type="checkbox"/>
EORI numbers of both sender and recipient	<input type="checkbox"/>
Invoice number and currency	<input type="checkbox"/>
HS Code (Custom tariff number), the worldwide uniform classification code of the good	<input type="checkbox"/>
Short description of the goods	<input type="checkbox"/>
Value of the goods for the calculation of duties and additional taxes	<input type="checkbox"/>
Incoterms agreement with your partners, to define the responsibility for customs clearance and associated costs	<input type="checkbox"/>

DO YOU NEED MORE HELP?

A further guidance can be found in the Commission communication "Preparing for the turnaround" and in the "Notices on preparations" to stakeholders of the individual sectors, published by the Commission services and available at:

https://ec.europa.eu/info/european-union-and-united-kingdom-forging-new-partnership/future-partnership/getting-ready-end-transition-period_en

USEFUL LINKS:

Border Operating Model \(PDF Download\)

Exporting goods from the UK

Importing goods into the UK

UK Tariffs

Info about transition period

How to get an EORI number

HMRC Helpline

Approach to the future relationship with EU